

Percy The Lonely Potato

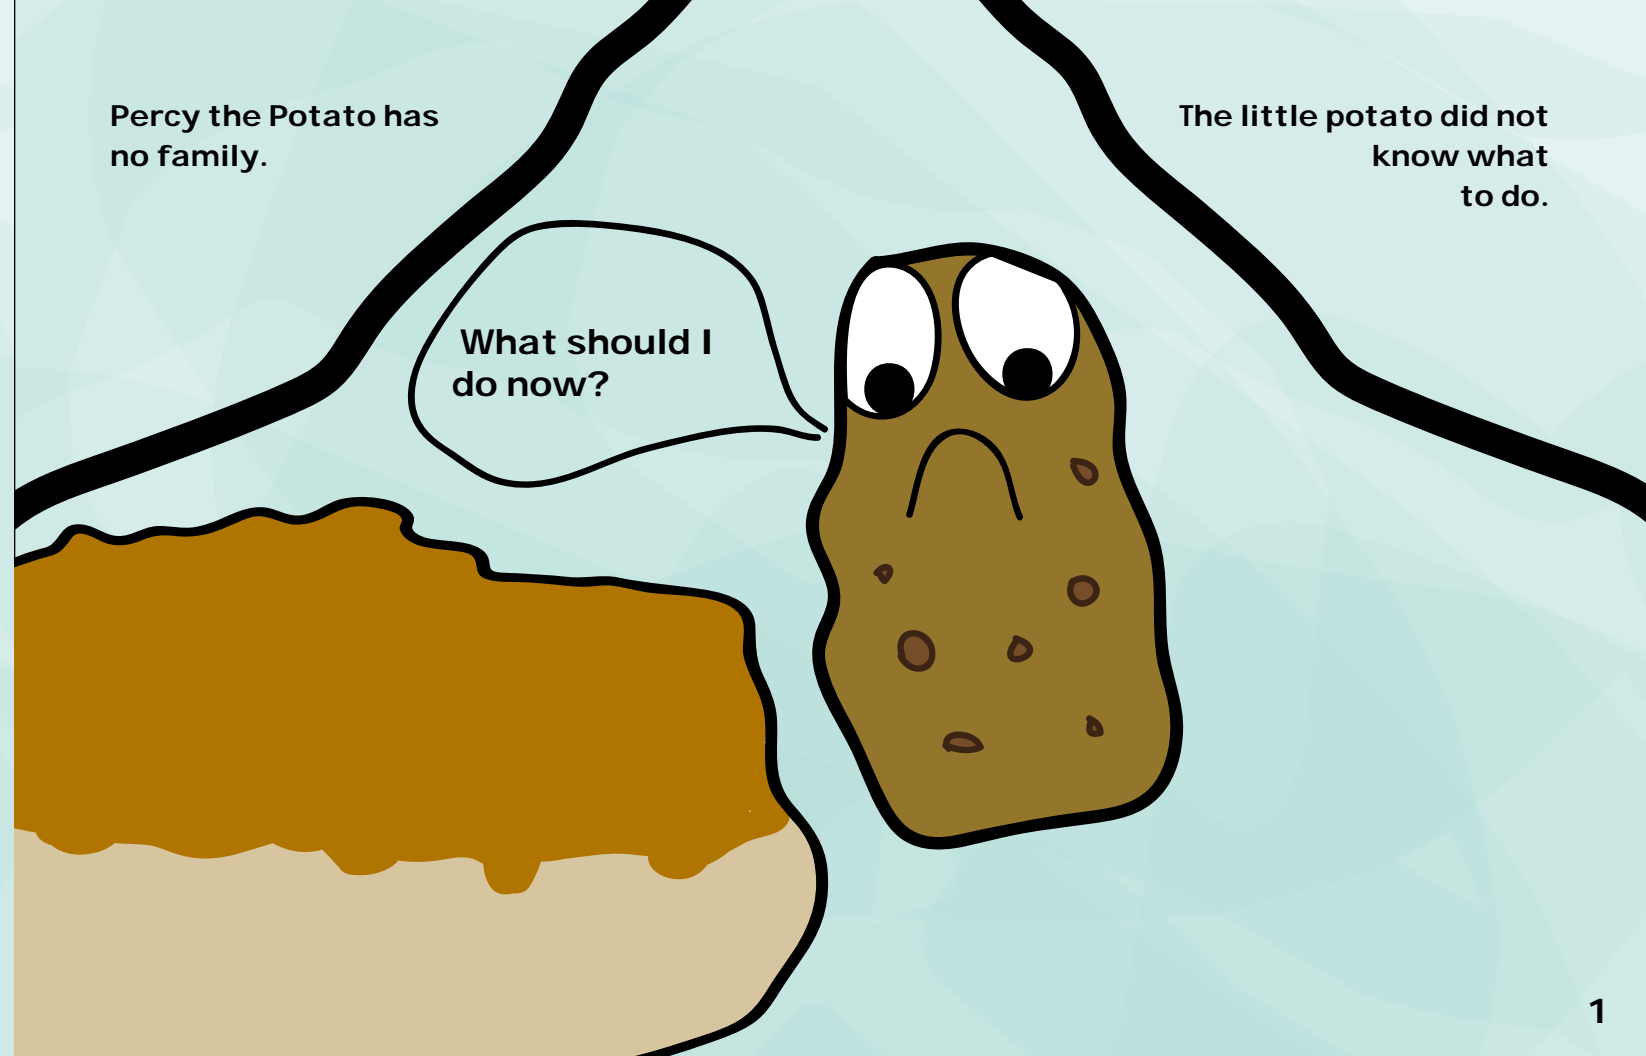

Written by Harrison Diehl

Percy the Potato has no family.

The little potato did not know what to do.

What should I do now?

Percy the Potato with no family decides to go on a journey to find a new family.

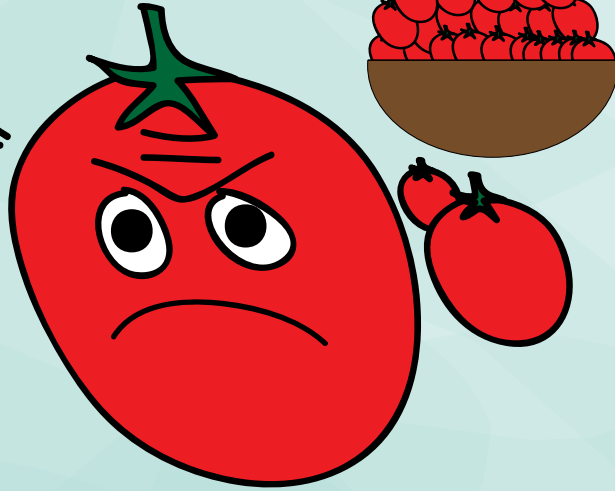

His first stop is the Tomato Bowl.

May I join your family?

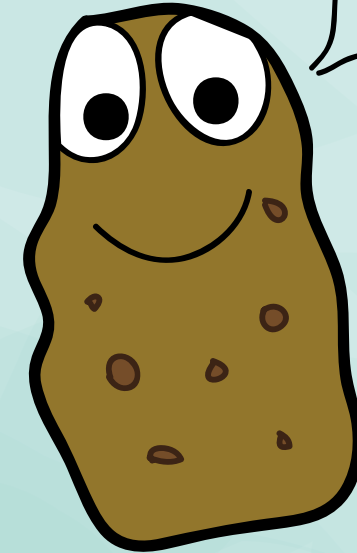

No you may not.
A potato is not a tomato.

The Tomatoes simply did not care about Percy the Potato.

Percy the Potato
continued on his way.

I will not give up!

Percy's next stop on his journey is the Cabbage Patch Batch.

The Cabbages simply did not care about Percy the Potato.

Saddened Percy the Potato continued on his way.

His next stop is the house of Anna the Banana.

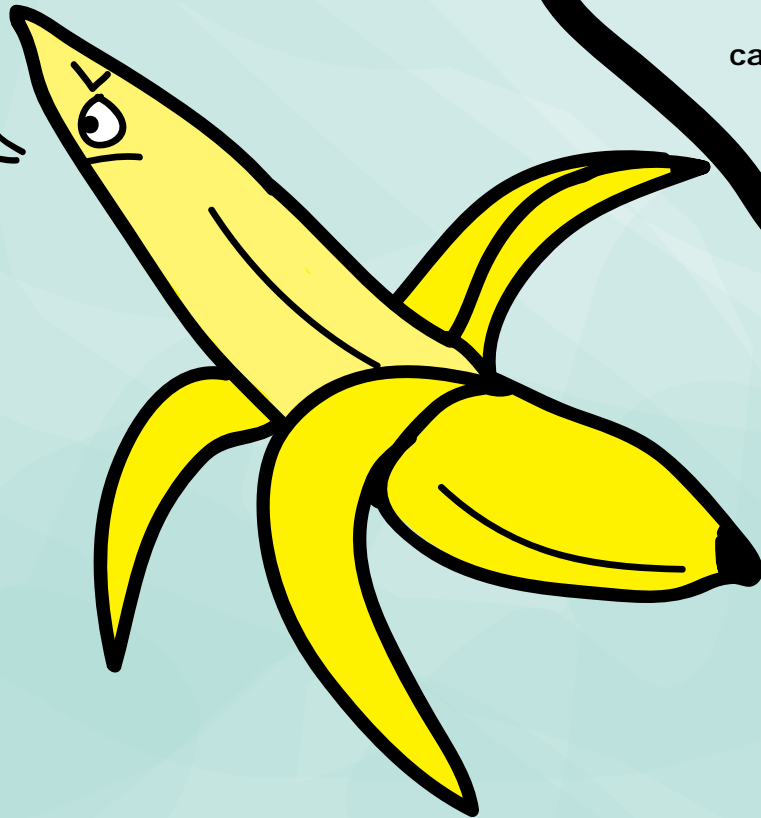

May I join your family?

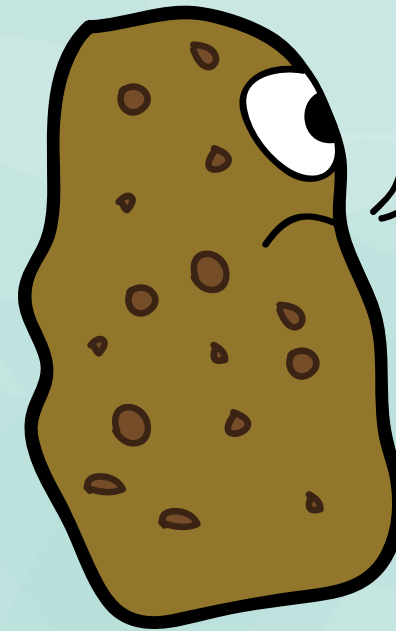

No you may not. A potato is not a banana.

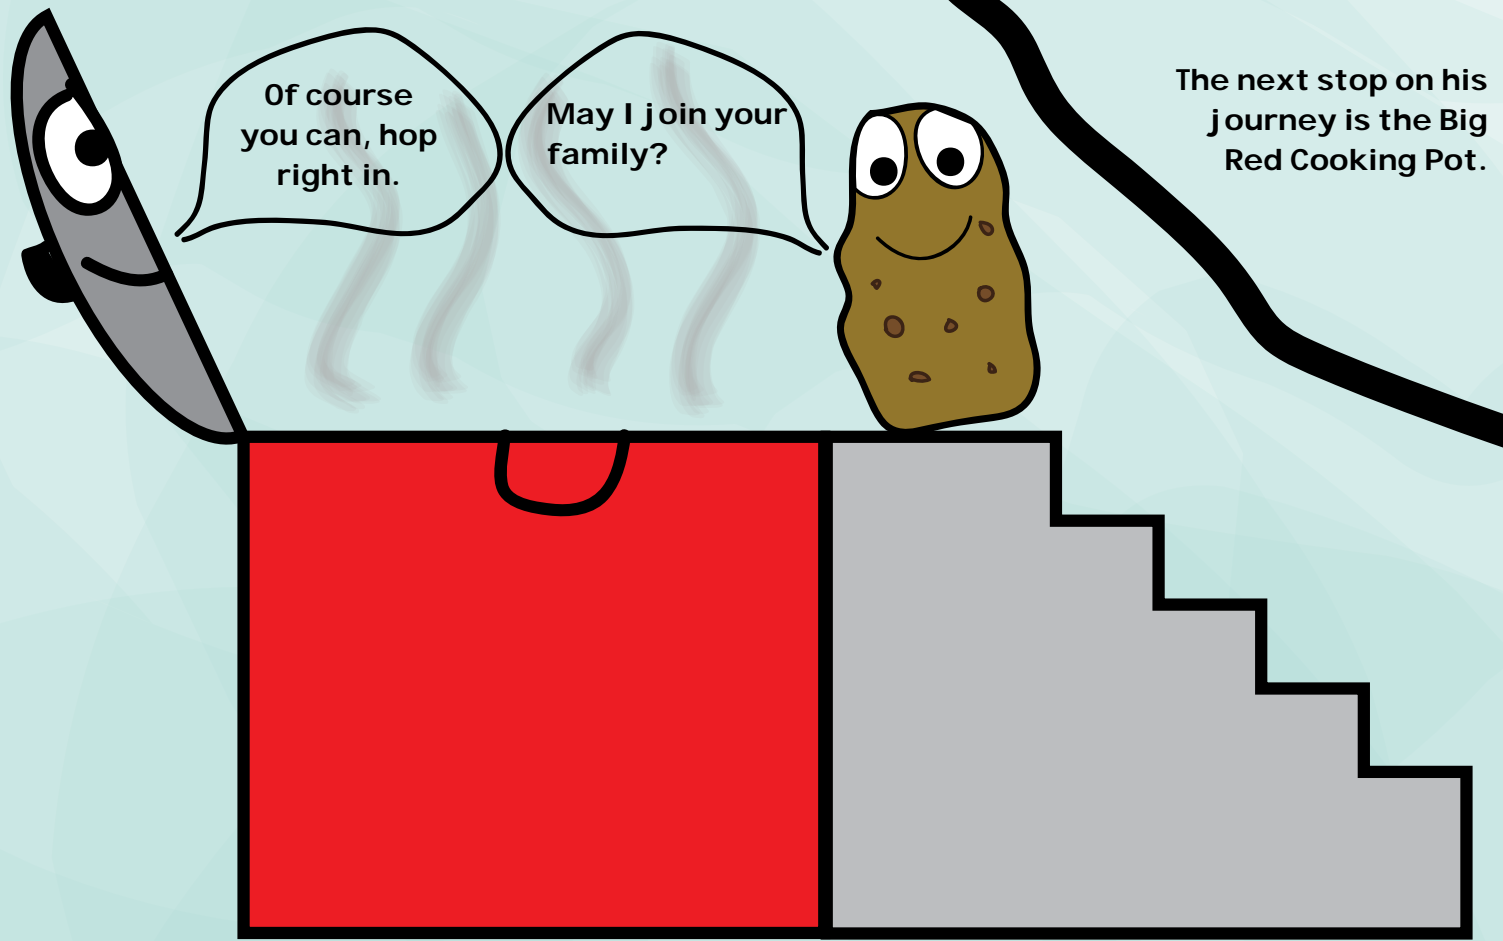

Anna the Banana simply did not care about Percy the Potato.

The little potato continued on his way. This time he had no hope.

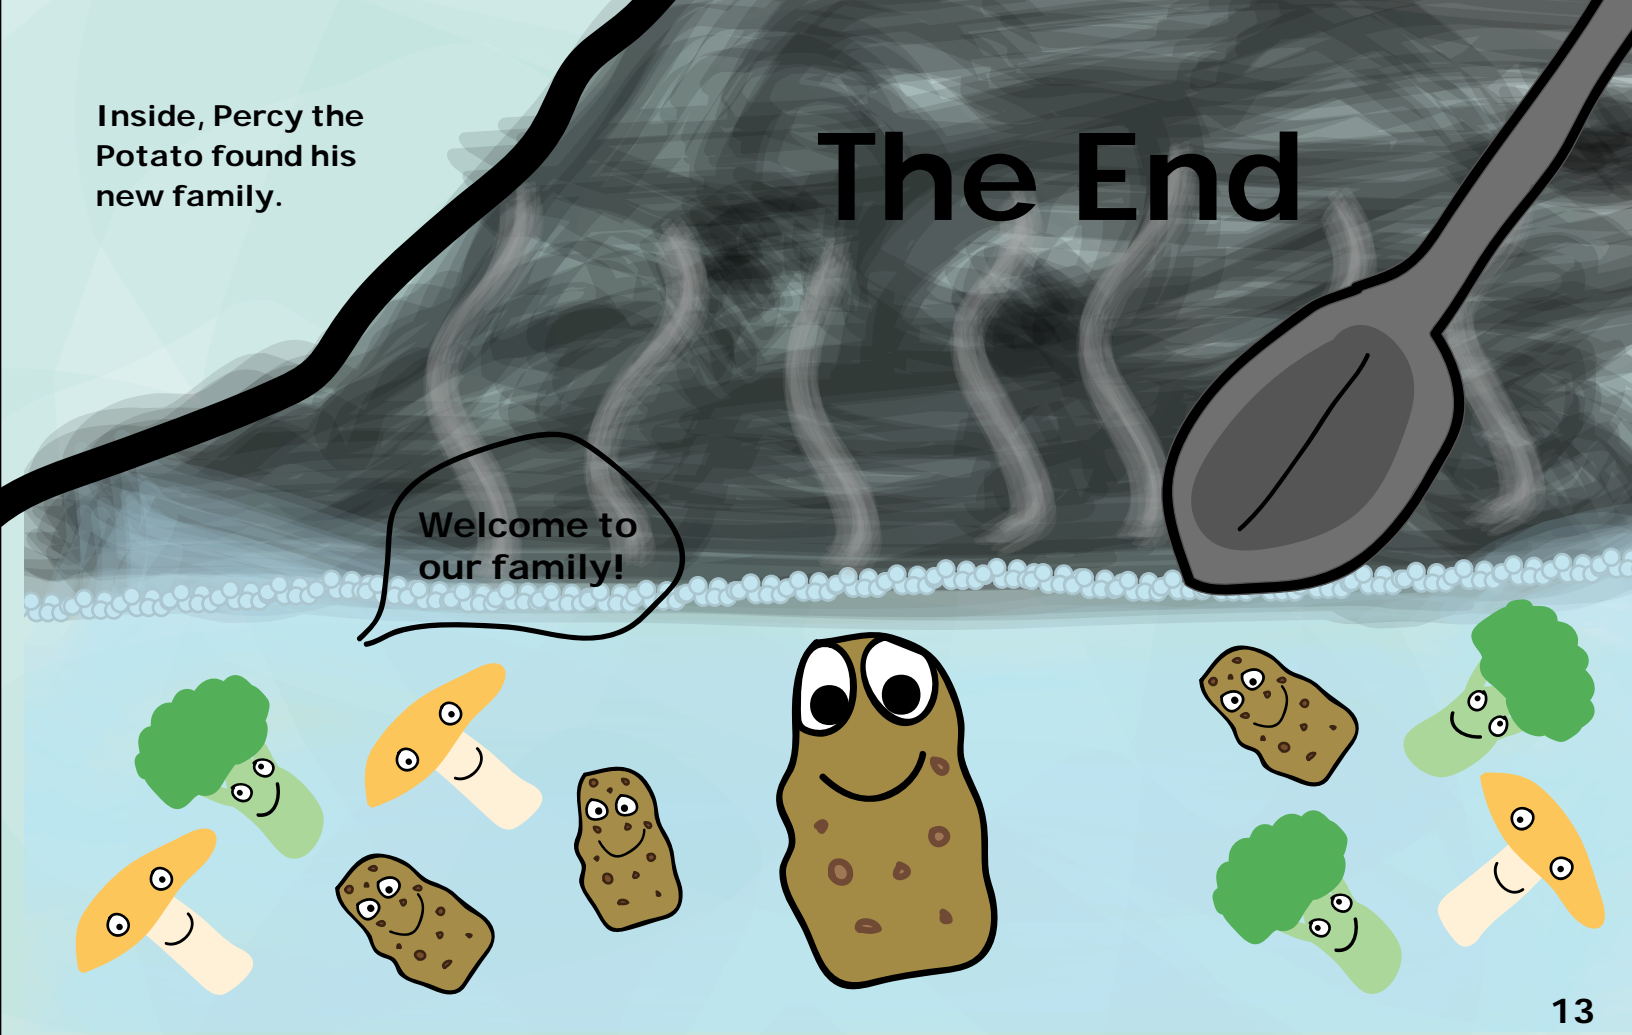

I'll never find a family.

Of course you can, hop right in.

May I join your family?

The next stop on his journey is the Big Red Cooking Pot.

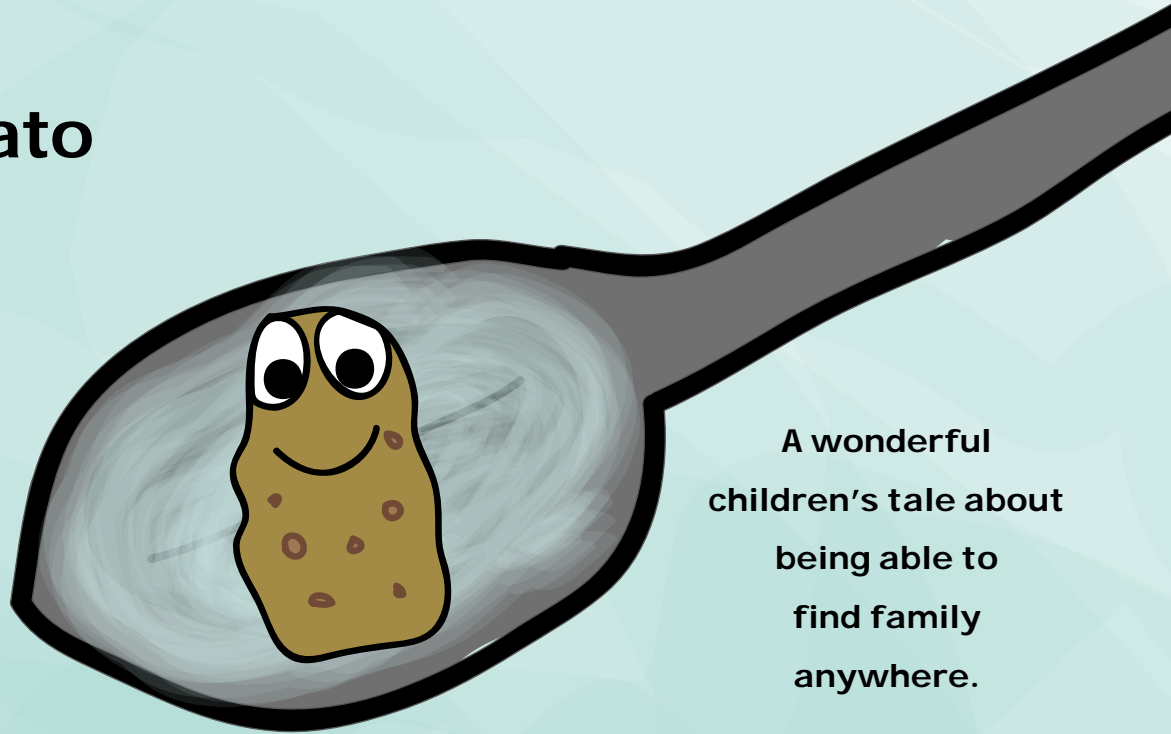

Inside, Percy the Potato found his new family.

The End

Welcome to our family!

Percy The Lonely Potato

A wonderful children's tale about being able to find family anywhere.
