

outside THE safe side

Sasha Caissie

Zoey always played in the backyard.

This story is based on true events.

She got bored with the backyard, though...

... at least until...

...she noticed a way out.

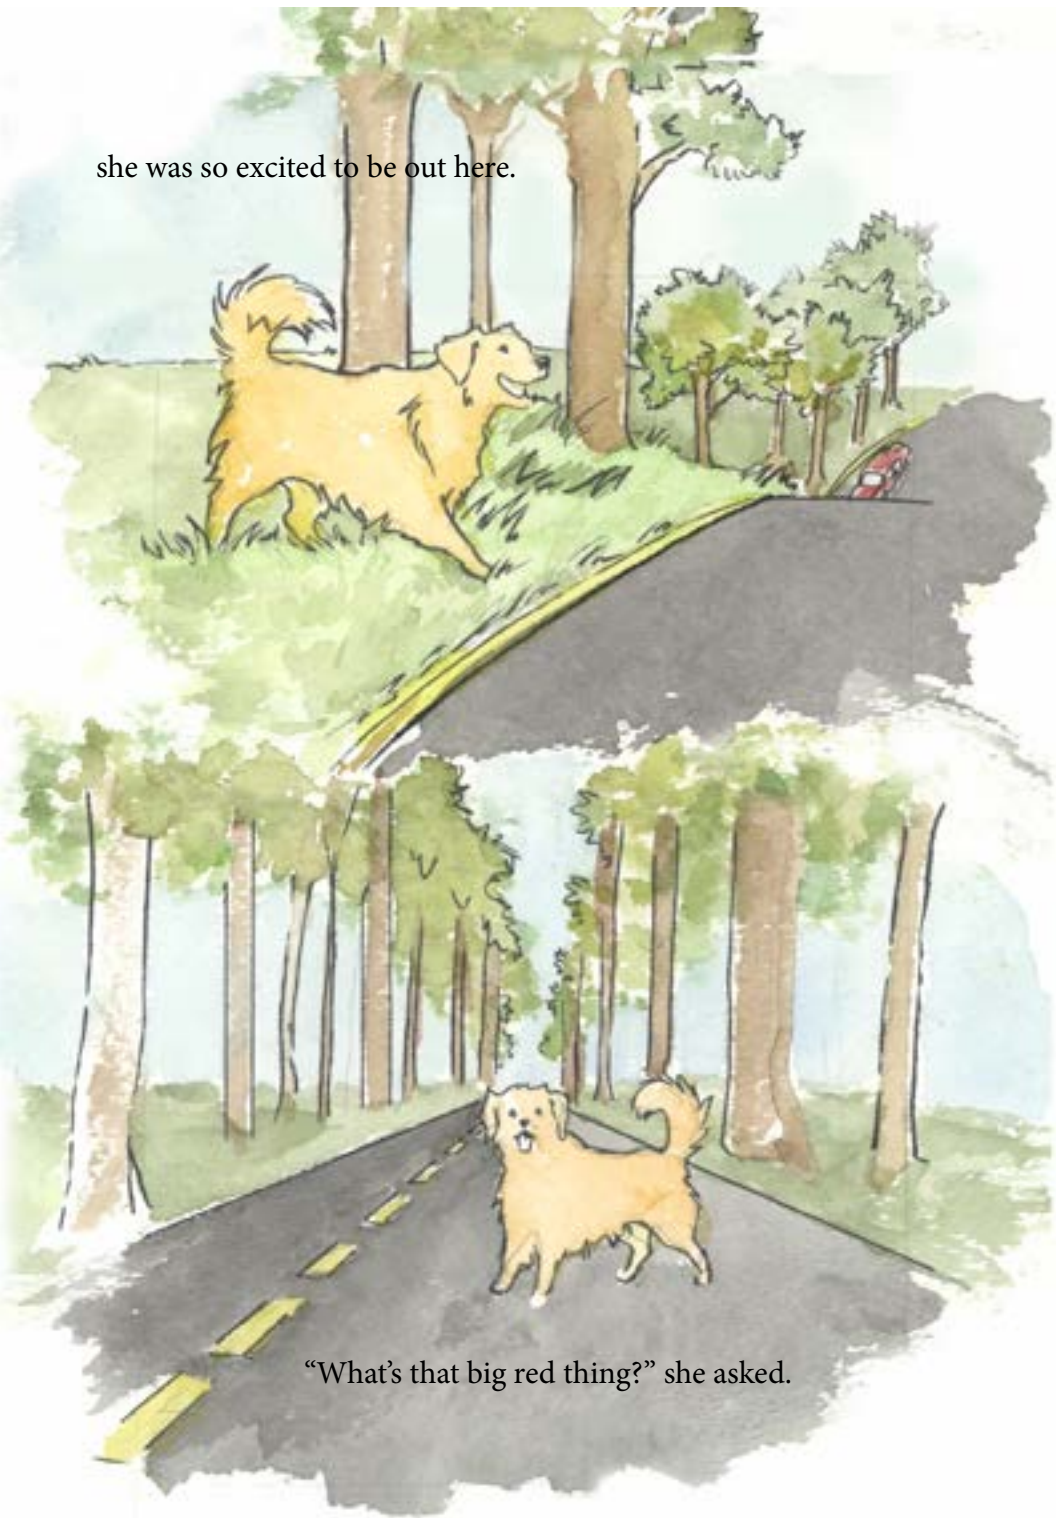

So she went for it.

She leaped over the fence onto the other side of the fence .

she was so excited to be out here.

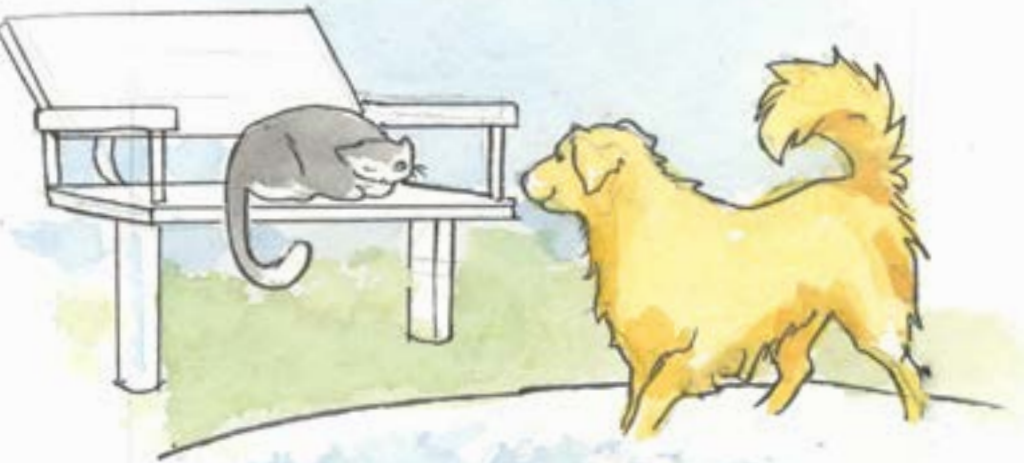

“What’s that big red thing?” she asked.

“Whoah! better get out of the way!”

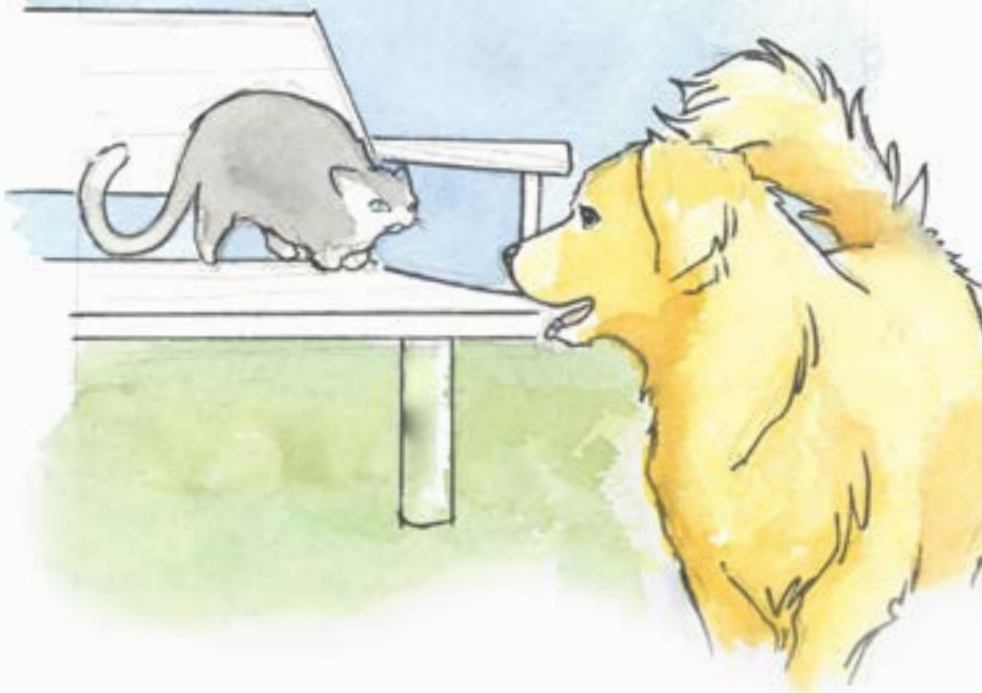

Zoey did not like the big red thing.
She continued her adventure.

Zoey saw a cat.

She wanted to say hello.

The cat hissed at Zoey.

Whoah! better get out the way!

Zoey ran 'till the cat stopped chasing her.

“GGGrRRRrrrr,” her stomach grumbled.

Maybe there's food here.

“I don't like this food,” she said

Zoey was sad now, she'd missed what she had back at home.

She missed her friends and family,

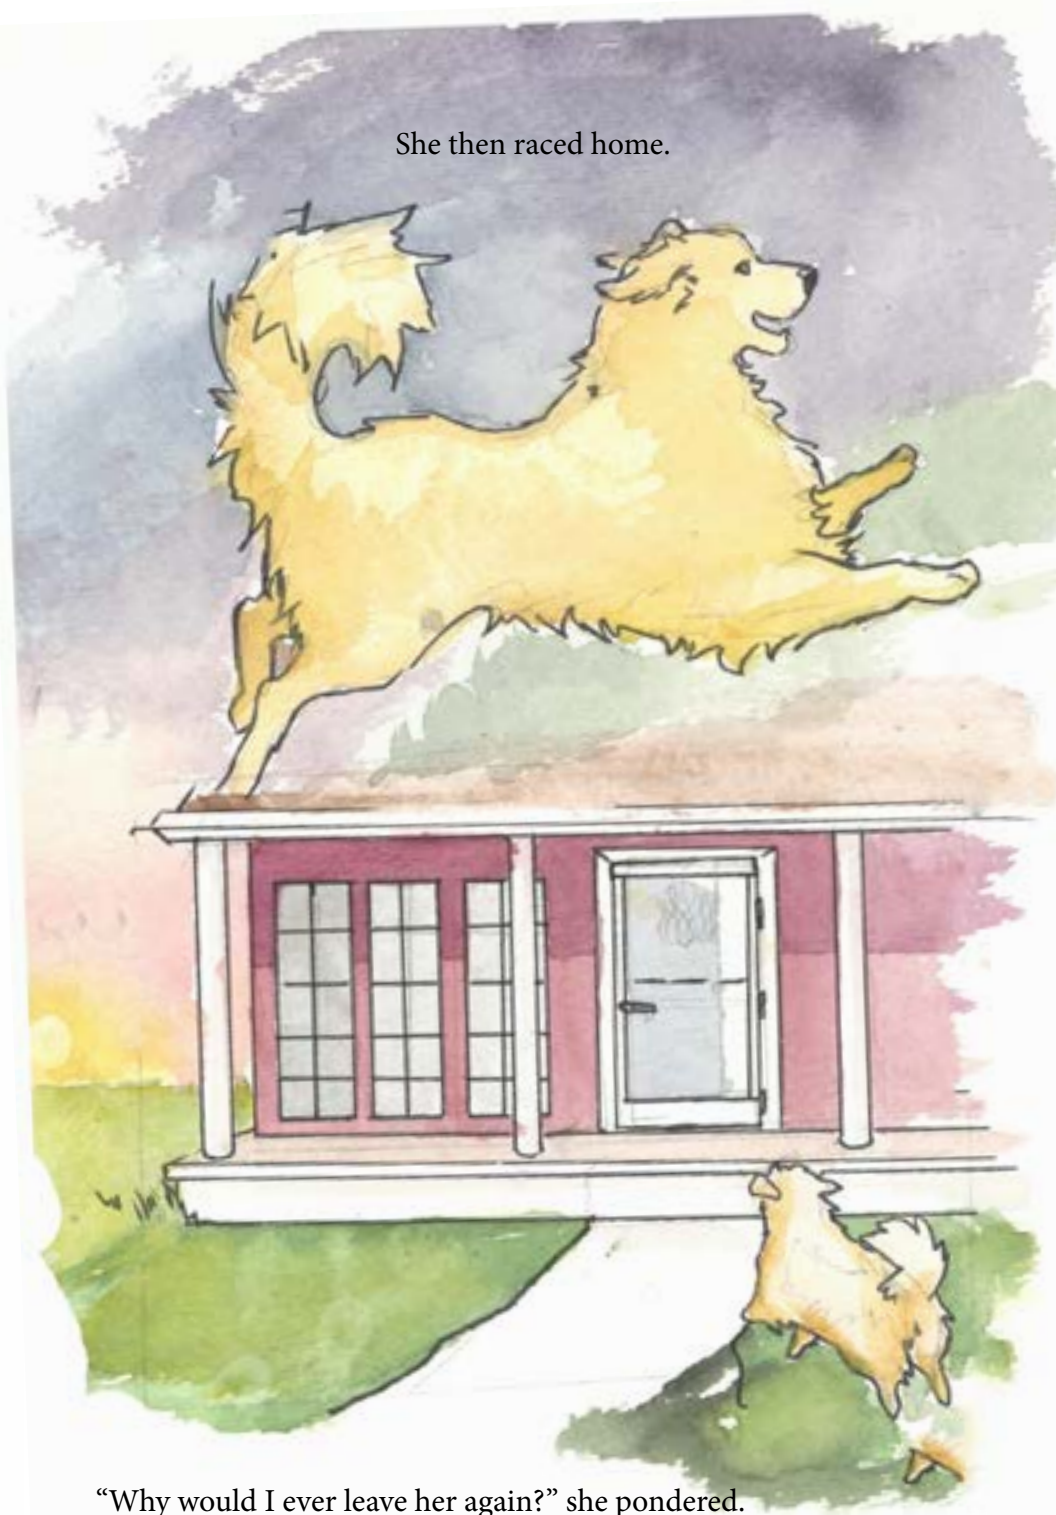

her toys,

and her yummy food.

She then raced home.

“Why would I ever leave her again?” she pondered.

This is Zoey.

2007- 2015

BVT MULTIMEDIA COMMUNICATION
BVT DESIGN AND PRINT CENTER

